Wintergreen Primary to Host Rousseau Traveling Exhibit

Students Will Be Awed by Jungles of Henri Rousseau!

(Greenville, NC): Wintergreen Primary will be displaying a Teacher's Discovery Traveling Exhibit featuring the fascinating paintings of French artist Henri Rousseau. The students and staff will enjoy the giant reproductions during the week of April 27-May 1, including one of the most famous paintings Tiger in a Tropical Storm (Surprised). The exhibit was made possible through a grant from the Pitt County Educational Foundation, Inc. awarded to art teacher Jennifer Love Girona. The Second grade students have been studying the works of Henri Rousseau in art class through art prints, a DVD, books and also interactive web-site through the National Gallery of Art. The students have been hard at work on numerous projects, including a postcard design, a tempera painting, oil pastel drawing and small ceramic medallion. The exhibit coincides with the Spring Music Performance and PTA Meeting on Tuesday, April 28th. Come take a 'Walk on the Wild Side' with Artist Henri Rousseau and the students of Wintergreen Primary!
